BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES

Margaret Finnegan: Played Mrs Todd in 'Blue Comedy'. Works as regional manager for Sky Chef Catering. Experienced in the Martial Arts. Rides a motorcycle. Threatened to beat up the director if she didn't get the part in this production.

Sharon Galt: Works as a Legal Accountant. Pumps gas on weekends. Sharon is so accident prone her St Christopher wears a blindfold.

Joan Hunt: Hides her light under a bushel, and her gin under a shelf in the pantry behind the tins of soup. Collects spoons for a hobby.

Pam Nicholson: Made her debut for Company as the Witch in 'Stone Cage'. Played Alice in 'Blue Comedy'. Has been a driving force in the production of 'Imported from Canada'. Currently studying for a B.A. at Auckland University.

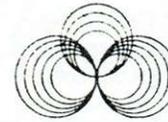

Wendy Pharaazyn: Retired legal secretary turned home executive. This bundle of talent and energy justifies the directors belief in attitude over experience.

Jody Pike: Jody's theatrical career goes back to her early childhood. She appeared in her first show at age nine. Her credits are too numerous to mention. She learned to read last week, and straightaway got the job as prompt.

Keith Sexton: Joined Company earlier this year. Played Dr Nair and Dick in 'Blue Comedy'. Studying drama at Lee Grant's workshops. A Comedian with style.

Roly Walker: Has had several years experience in theatre, both here and in Australia. Joined Company in September 1980. Played Marshall in 'Stone Cage' and Bill in 'Blue Comedy'. Recently learned to walk upright.

Clynt Whitaker: Seventh form student at Glenfield College. Has been active in drama throughout his school life. Successfully completed sixth form drama course under Kathryn Whillans. Wants to do a B.A. at Auckland University before applying to Drama School in Wellington.
